Submission of Articles for District and National Publication (Revised 08/16/2010)

All chapter articles must be submitted directly to the District Public Relations Director, before the deadline dates to allow for editing by the District Director of Public Relations prior to his submission to the National Editor. The District Director of Public Relations and/or The Oracle Editorial Board will decide which articles will be published. Do not send chapter articles directly to the International Headquarters or to the National Editor to The Oracle. Chapter articles not sent to the District Director of Public Relations will be returned. All articles must be:

- Submitted electronically in MS Word, formatted in Times New Roman 12pt. font
- Reviewed for grammatical perfection, correct spelling, and proper syntax.
- Reviewed for acceptable composition and form.
- Timely, and reviewed for relevance and journalistic style.
- Written addressing the 5 W’s– who –what- when-where- how
- Reviewed prior to submission for publication.
- An appropriate length and not exceed one page; and they should be single-spaced.
- Submitted with photos attached separately from the article document in “.jpg” format.
- Identifiable with captioned photos which identify the persons and the event.
- Identifiable and should state name of writer, the name of chapter, and city/state.
- PROFESSIONAL, inappropriate pictures (tongues out, dog paraphernalia/shredded fatigues, “hooks”, etc.) will not be published.
